AGORAé project

The AGORAé is a space for exchange and solidarity. It's composed of a living area open to everyone and a solidarity grocery store accessible on social criteria. Supported and managed by students for students, the AGORAé is a non-stigmatising place working towards real equality of access and success in higher education.

Origins of the project

A deterioration of student life and a shift towards employment that has become obligatory at the expense of studies has been observed for several years. It's leading to isolation and potentially resulting in distress and the abandonment of studies. Therefore, the FAGE aimed to provide an innovative response with the goal of contributing to equal opportunities for success by improving student living conditions.

Since 2009, the organization has chosen to address these issues by proposing a project that promotes the creation of social connections, solidarity, and advice for daily life: the AGORAé.

The project leaders

Local representative: GAELIS

The GAELIS federation (Grouping of Independent and Solidarity Student Associations and Representatives of Lyon and Bourg-en-Bresse) is the territorial federation representing students from the Lyon and Bourg-en-Bresse regions. It brings together student associations and representatives by organizing various training and cohesion events. GAELIS implements different projects to address student issues in the region.

The national carrier: The FAGE

The Fédération des Associations Générales Etudiantes is a representative student organisation with Youth and Popular Education accreditation. It brings together 2,000 associations representing 300,000 students. The FAGE's aim is to guarantee real equality, which is why it works to constantly improve the living and studying conditions of young people by carrying out activities in the field of representation and defence of rights. It also establishes services and initiatives that meet social needs and plays a role in social innovation.

Be a beneficiary of AGORAé

Being a beneficiary of AGORAé requires adherence to the principles and values that govern it. Its values are solidarity, mutual aid, and respect. Its principles are participation, support, and involvement. Beneficiaries commit to taking part in the life of AGORAé. To be an active participant in student solidarity and to contribute to the vitality of AGORAé, it is important for everyone to be a driving force behind active solidarity: "Helping oneself... helping others!"

Do you have a project in mind? We can help

AGORAé's purpose isn't solely to provide basic food assistance; it's here to offer you tools and guidance in achieving your projects. In order to actively engage with the help you receive, it's important to express your interest by participating in AGORAé's activities and community.

AGORAé exists to foster social connections and diversity..

A solidarity grocery

AGORAé offers (after reviewing and accepting your application) access to a grocery store with a diverse selection of quality products, with a minimal financial contribution: 10% of the regular price. The aim is to free up your time for studies by reducing your food budget. This principle isn't a form of assistance but rather a participatory food offering.

How to participate?

Every initiative is welcome; it's important that everyone approaches participation in AGORAé voluntarily. You can develop projects, suggest services, and take part in the organized activities.

Why not become a volunteer?

The AGORAé project requires a significant amount of energy and human resources, and it calls upon your civic will. Commit yourself to supporting students in need, contribute some of your time to the functioning of this unique place! Bring your ideas and skills to the AGORAé project.

Information

Opening times

The hours may vary throughout the year, as they are run by students. We send out the schedules in advance, and you choose the time you want to come to the store.

As AGORAé stores are located on university campuses, opening times can vary from 8am to 7pm. As the campuses are closed on weekends, AGORAé will always be closed on weekends.

The savings made

The grocery store gives beneficiaries access to foodstuffs at 10% (or -90%) of the market price. For a student to be accepted, he/she must have a Daily Living Allowance (RAVJ) of between €1 and €8. If a student does not meet these criteria, he/she may be accepted but with restricted access.

There are different types of access:

- 3-month access: the student has classic access and can shop for a maximum of 15€ per month (approximately 150€ in stores).
- 1 month access -: the student is below the criteria and therefore has restricted access for 1 month and can shop for a maximum of 10€ per month (approximately 100€ in stores).
- 1 month + access: the student is above the criteria, so has restricted access for 1 month and can shop for a maximum of 13€ per month (approx. 130€ in stores).

Any student in higher education can apply to any grocery store, regardless of course or school. For example, if an application is accepted at Lyon 1, it is not possible to shop at Lyon 2, and vice versa.

Where to submit your application

You have the choice to submit your access request application for either the AGORAé on the La Doua campus (Villeurbanne) or the Porte des Alpes campus (Bron).

The application is the same, and you simply need to send it by email to one of the following addresses:

- Porte des Alpes :
  - agoraelyon2.dossiers@gaelis.fr

!/ Please note that you can only be a beneficiary of one AGORAé.

Access rights are on a monthly basis and are limited to three consecutive months.

You can apply for a renewal at the end of your access period. You are entitled to three renewal requests within the academic year.
